

Master of Business Administration

Northeastern University's D'Amore-McKim School of Business prepares students to navigate a global and ever-evolving business world. A D'Amore-McKim MBA prepares students for the future of work in a digitally driven economy.

MBA students integrate broad business knowledge with a deep understanding of the future of technological advancement. They build in-demand skills leveraging actual company data through projects as they learn from a faculty of consultants, respected management leaders, and startup founders. This prepares our students to become innovative leaders.

Integrating classroom instruction with authentic, experience-powered learning is what we do best at D'Amore-McKim. It's an approach that expands students' knowledge base, develops their creative mindset, and prepares them to meet the shifting demands of today's business world. Students in our MBA programs will have ample opportunities to dive headfirst into experiences that will give them fresh perspectives and in-demand skills.

Students enroll in D'Amore-McKim MBA programs full time, part time, or for online study.
